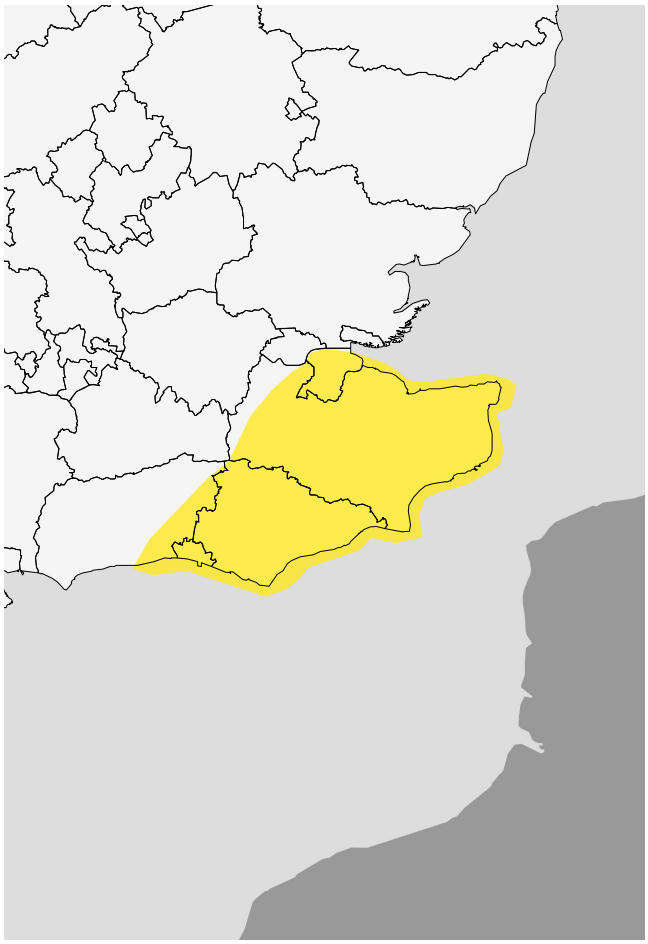
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
06:00 Sat 24 Aug 2024 and
13:00 Sat 24 Aug 2024



Spells of rain, heavy at times, likely to cause some travel disruption and perhaps flooding in a few places.

What to expect

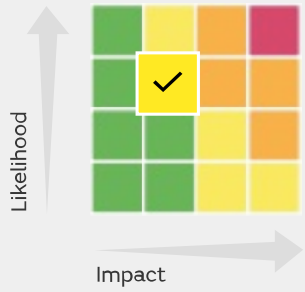
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- A small chance of flooding of a few homes and businesses
- A small chance of some interruption to power supplies and other services

Further details

Spells of rain, heavy at times, developing this morning will persist for several hours before clearing away eastwards by early afternoon. 15 to 30 mm of rain is likely to fall widely and as much as 40 mm rain could accumulate in a few places.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



Medium likelihood of low impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.

Reason for update

Whilst rain will continue to affect a larger part of southern and eastern England this morning, heavier rainfall causing impacts in places is now considered limited to Kent and Sussex.
